

The provisions to establish a National Confidential Forum, as part of the Victims & Witnesses (Scotland) Bill, have been introduced to the Scottish Parliament.

The link to the Bill (second last on the page) can be found click here . Associated Documents relating to the Bill are also available at the following link:
click here

Further details can be found in the A Consultation on the proposal to establish a National Confidential Forum - Analysis of Consultation Responses which can be found here .